Not bad for a rpg maker game, it is actually a fun game.. Glowfish is a charming casual game. The graphics are colorful and the sounds are cute. Makes sense right, since it's a casual game. Well, anyway, the goal is to guide a fish towards a clam of some sort. Near the clam is a stream that blocks the way. In order to continue you have to collect other (friendly) fish by killing enemies. There are coins to collect as well. The coins can be used for upgrading your companions. It's all straightforward but good fun nonetheless. So if you're into casual games Glowfish might just be the thing for you.

[Rating: 72/100]. This is not yet a game.. A quite, casual game for anyone who enjoys simple, yet difficult puzzles. Game descriptions mentions relaxing but some of these puzzles are so complicated that I freak out trying to solve them. Maybe in the lower levels one could relax while playing this, but in the upper levels, get ready for a challenge.. what a let down. uzis in ww2 cant see a foot in front of you have to sprint to even walk like a normal person got it for free from steam but god its like\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665on the kids a christmas . personally my favorite map in this game. Spent a little bit of time on this game. It's okay.. Looks like a fun little kids game for their first hidden object game. That's probably what it should be, then it might actually be worth playing. Instead, you literally have to find 6 items in an extremely short period of time, to achieve a certain score in order to even move onto the next level. You don't ever actually know what that time or score is, though, so you don't have any idea whether you're getting at least one star to move on or not until you finish the level. Which technically sounds worse than it is, because in each version of the level, everything stays in the same place, so by the second time, and definitely by the third time, you'll likely get 3 stars. It's just never very fun, though, and for the price, there are much better hidden object games out there.. 10 players on 12 Orbits was the highlight of the night. A no-brainer to pack in case you need to break up endless rounds of Jackbox.

What a great way to show the evolution of a game.

They took the original prototype for the game, and mixed in a behind the scenes look at how the game(s) came about.

Your goal is to find pages throughout the game by avoiding obstacles, and making your way from one level, to the other without dying.

A first person platformer with quite impressive graphics, and audio, especially for a prototype game.

Having said that, this is a prototype, so some areas may feel less impressive than others, where graphics are concerned, but it does not take anything away from the gameplay, which is quite solid.

Definitely worth checking out, especially considering that it is Free.

Don't take my word for it, and check out my video by clicking on the link.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9ayVptTeTdQ&index=45&list=PLGCO4EfbVB6XXoAnQMUIjoEh3c2BLfHx8>. How do i play this game? :p. A simple but fun tower defense. Till level 4. Level 4 does not load, the game crashes. Do not buy this game. It's not worth whatever they are charging.. Thanks for reminding me why I love video games :). I don't know what happen while record the frame rate of the video drop to 10fps from 60fps. PAKO 2 is crazy taxi criminal edition, and that is a very good thing! (Video Version of Review) <https://youtu.be/PMddawSe0f4> The core gameplay revolves around picking up crews from jobs they just pulled, and getting them to their drop-off location, all while avoiding the ever growing police threat that manifests itself in increasingly more dangerous ways. The game may sound simple, but it's all the extra trappings that push this one well ahead of it's competition. An entire lot of cars to buy with in game cash, tons of weapons to purchase that give this title it's twin stick elements, mods that can be installed, a perk system that can be customized and earned through each successful drop-off, stat boosting for each vehicle, multiple levels! The list goes on and on for ways that you can customize your own experience and style in this game. Even the graphic options shine here, with the ability to make the game look like a 70's VHS cop show, or if you prefer, clean up the visuals with a more "modern" look. Tree Men Games have written a love letters to the fans with this title, and I would be more than happy to stand up and start the slow clap that this game deserves.
